FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What are the minimum eligibility requirements to apply to Haas?

UC Berkeley students preparing to apply for the business major must satisfy the following major-specific requirements for the Haas Undergraduate Program: All prerequisites for letter grades, The foreign language requirement, completion of at least 60 semester (90 quarter) units. All courses required for admission must be completed by the end of the Spring semester prior to starting at the Haas School of Business.

How many times can I apply to the business major?

Continuing UC Berkeley students may apply only once to the Haas Undergraduate Program. In order for an application to be considered, applicants must meet the minimum eligibility requirements. Students admitted as junior transfers to the College of Letters and Science or other majors are not eligible to apply.

Must students get an internship or join a business fraternity/club prior to applying to Haas?

The admission committee is looking for leadership potential in extracurricular activities and does not give certain activities more weight in the review process. Students should participate in what they enjoy (on-campus clubs, volunteer experience, work experience, religious activities, etc.)

Do you accept AP, IB or A level exams to satisfy breadth and/or prerequisite requirements?

Certain exams may be used to satisfy Haas requirements. Please visit <http://haas.berkeley.edu/Undergrad/aplist.html> for details. Exams cannot be used to satisfy breadth requirements.

How does the Admission Committee evaluate applications?

The application is broken down as follows: 50% Grades & Coursework, 35% Essays, and 15% Resume/extracurricular activities. In addition to reviewing applications for completion of minimum eligibility requirements and academic achievement and promise, the Admission Committee will review many factors, including performance in prerequisites, grade trends, and leadership skills, among other things.
