Places to Eat and Things to Do!

Food

Under $10/person

Brewed Awakening (Located on Euclid, between Hearst and Ridge)

Great coffee, tea, and smoothies, and a nice place to study on Northside

Tara's Organic Ice cream (College Ave)

Serves some odd (yet somehow delicious flavors)

Ici (College Ave)

Ice cream!

Cream (Telegraph & Channing)

Cheap ice cream sandwiches

Cheese N' Stuff (located in the shopping area in Durant Parking Garage)

Awesome, cheap sandwiches on Southside

Northside Cafe (Euclid)

Good lunch place on Northside. They have giant baked potatoes, along with salads & sandwiches

Stuffed Inn (Euclid)

Sandwiches and soup on Northside

Crepevine (one on College, another on Shattuck)

Good savory and sweet crepes, along excellent sandwiches. Recommended for brunch

Cheeseboard Pizza (Shattuck and Vine)

One type of pizza per day. Always delicious – long lines move fast.

Asian Ghetto Eateries: Gypsies, Thai Basil ('Durant Food Court')

Cheap food, and places are open late for those long nights

Oscar's Burgers (Hearst and Shattuck)

Might not look perfect from the outside, but but this place has great charbroiled hamburgers

Zachary's Pizza (College Ave, by Trader Joe's)

Go with a group or get takeout! Deep dish pizza. Waits can be long!

Barney's (On College Ave, by Trader Joe's, or on Shattuck and Cedar)

Huge selection of good burgers, curly fries, and great malt/shakes

Food

$10-20/person

Cafe Colucci (Telegraph Ave, in Oakland)

Ethiopian restaurant with flavorful and unique food

Trattoria La Siciliana (College just past Ashby)

Italian; a great place to take a date!

Filippo's (College just past Ashby)

Also Italian; cheaper and slightly more casual than Trattoria

La Mediterranean (College just past Ashby)

Mediterranean food, great hummus, and kabobs

Great China Restaurant (Kittredge)

Chinese food; go with a group to get more food!

Gregoire (Cedar and Shattuck)

Tiny French place that's great for lunch. Potato Puffs are a must-have!

Angeline's Louisiana Kitchen (Shattuck near Kittredge)

Incredible, flavorful Cajun food; an ROHP committee favorite

$20-40/person

Gather (Fulton and Bancroft)

Serves food that uses only locally available and organic ingredients. Part of the "California Cuisine" scene

La Note (Shattuck near Durant)

French cuisine; incredible for brunch

Skate's on the Bay (by the Bay)

Great view of the Berkeley Marina

$$$$$$$$$$

Chez Panisse (Shattuck and Vine)

Birthplace of "California Cuisine." The most famous restaurant in Berkeley (the chef's a Berkeley grad!) Go to the cafe upstairs for a more affordable option
